ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

ICONSTAM is scientific meeting on Standardization and Metrology organized by Center for Research and Human Resources Development-National Standardization Agency of Indonesia (PUSRISBANG - BSN). This year, BSN collaborated with Trisakti University and National University Jakarta held ICONSTAM 2021. The purpose of this conference is to bring together academia, researchers and engineers to share achievements, ideas and vision on standardization, metrology and its application. This conference provides a meaningful forum for experts and professionals from all around the world to discuss topics that deal with recent advancement in the wide spectrum of standardization and metrology. This conference theme is "Global Challenge on Science and Technology for the New Normal". In the meeting, the participants can exchange information and views among the members of international scientific community, professional, industries, engineers and students working in the field of standardization and conformity assesment.
